Ordered that IN THE YEAR ONE THOUSAND NINE HUNDREN EIGHTY AN ORDINANCE ESTABLISHING AN ORDINANCE RELATING TO THE SALE OF JUNK, OLD METALS, SECOND-HAND ARTICLES, COINS AND STAMPS

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Lynn and by the authority of the same as follows, to wit:△

Section 1. Every person keeping a shop for the purchase, sale or barter of junk, old metals, second-hand articles, coins and stamps, and every person collecting, by purchase or otherwise, junk, old metals, second-hand articles, coins and stamps from place to place must be licensed by the City Council, whether such collector is engaged in business in his own behalf or employed by another.

Section 2. Every keeper of a shop so licensed shall put in some suitable and conspicuous place in his shop, a sign having his name and occupation legibly inscribed thereon in large letters. Every such shop and all articles of merchandise therein, and any place, vehicle or receptacle used for the collection or keeping of junk, old metals, second-hand articles, stamps or coins, may be examined at any time by the City Council of the City of Lynn, its designee or members of the Police Department of the City of Lynn.

Section 3. Every vehicle used in the exercise of the business of any person licensed as above shall have placed upon the outside and upon each side, the number of the license and name of the owner thereof, in plain, legible figures and letters, of not less than three (3) inches in size so that the same may be distinctly seen and read.

Section 4. Every person licensed as a keeper of a shop under this ordinance shall keep a book in which shall be written in English, at the time of every receipt of purchase, a description of the article purchased, the name, age and residence of the person from whom purchased and the day and hour when such purchase was made. Said book shall be at all times open for the inspection of the City Council, its designee or members of the Police Department.
